

NEWSLETTER

MEET THE STUDENTS WHO BENEFIT FROM YOUR DONATIONS

Thomas Gaiter Foundation in partnership with National Alumnae Association of Spelman College (NAASC), sponsored several girls from homeless shelters to visit Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) in America. The goal is to instill and inspire towards a path of higher learning as well as motivate them towards a brighter future.

HELPING HANDS

Thomas Gaiter Foundation in collaboration with Ritinjali (Helping Hands) in New Delhi, India, sponsors programs designed to create an interest in learning and provide basic skills in numeracy and literacy, along with health and hygiene and other life skills. This program is aimed at increasing awareness, developing values and a love for learning among disadvantaged and less fortunate children.