

THOMAS GAITER FOUNDATION

March 2022

NEWSLETTER

“We are so grateful to have received thousands of KN95 masks for the students and families”.

-Oglala Sioux Lakota Tribe Pine Ridge, South Dakota

“Your gift makes it possible for us to grow our life-saving housing program for domestic violence survivors and expand our comprehensive, trauma-informed support services; so, we can continue to meet the needs of vulnerable women in our community”.

-Calvary Women’s Services

“Thanks for the gift of KN95 masks, may God bless you”.

- New York Ave. Men’s Shelter

“Thank you.”

“Thank you.”

During the pandemic, Thomas Gaiter Foundation was extremely blessed to have received donations of tens of thousands of KN95 masks to be distributed to the communities in need.

“Thank you.”

Masking is a critical public health tool for preventing spread of COVID-19. -CDC (Center for Disease Control)