

NEWSLETTER

The Thomas Gaiter Foundation has been able to assist countless vulnerable and needy communities in America and around the world because of your contribution.

Today our thanks and appreciation come not only from the organization but also from the communities we have been able to support because of your kindness.

Thomas Gaiter Foundation is forever thankful to all our generous donors and worldwide volunteers who help us continue to promote quality health and quality education around the world.

