

Chance Manley

Ms. Manley has a Baccalaureate Degree in Business Management. She also has a minor in legal studies. She served for eight years with the United States Army. She has worked as a legal assistant with the United States Department of Justice-Civil Rights Division and served as an Executive Administrative Assistant to the Office of the Chief Medical Officer at Howard University Hospital.

Ms. Manley owns and operates Chancellor & Associates Process Services, a full service company that provides service of process, courier, skip tracing, document preparation and other related services.